The Sanctuary Candle for the month of October will burn for all the victims of abortion: mothers, fathers, & children, and for suicide victims.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - Catholic Traditions Explained

Q: A coworker confided in me that years ago she had an abortion. She goes to church, but feels too guilty to receive Communion, even though she went to confession. What can I do to help her ?

A: In the whole debate on the legality of abortion one rarely hears anything said about the emotional trauma many women experience following an abortion, sometimes years later. Violence in any form, but especially done to oneself and to an innocent person, can leave a wake in its path of guilt, fear, sadness, self-hatred, shame, and regret. Women and men often hold in their feelings because of fear of rejection and embarrassment.

Obviously, your coworker trusts you very much to share her story with you. The best thing you can do, besides offering your support and a listening ear, is to recommend Project Rachel. This is a healing ministry for those who have been involved in an abortion. Founded in Milwaukee in 1984 by Victoria Thorn, locations are all over the country. Staffed by counselors and priests trained to provide spiritual and psychological care for those suffering from the effects of abortion, Project Rachel is for women and men. Information is available from the local parish, the diocesan pro-life office, or by looking online for Project Rachel websites. (In our diocese: 860 848 2237 x306 or hopeafterabortion.com)

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP—

Lk 17: 5-10

Some weeks seem to move steadily downhill as soon as they start. Your boss hits you with some hard criticism. Driving around town seems to be a constant experience of getting cut off and tailgated. The waiter at the restaurant felt pretty sure that your burnt and dried out lunch was not his problem. The kids didn't plan ahead once again and the entire science fair project is due: tomorrow!

Then an angel of God in the form of a friend, acquaintance, or stranger says one nice thing, does one good deed, or offers a small gift of kindness and suddenly the entire week changes. The power of good is always able to defeat the bad in our lives, but it is amazing that so much bad can be overcome by such a small amount of good--truly amazing.

Jesus told us that with a little faith, we could accomplish great things. The faith of a mustard seed can move mountains or uproot a tree from the earth and replant it in the sea. It does not take much to make a big difference in the world.

If we apply this understanding to stewardship, then we can see that small gifts of time, talent, or treasure can yield great harvests. Yes, we are called to offer all we have back to God and his people, but that does not change the fact that through small offerings of ourselves we can change the greater reality in the lives of many.

For many years, I had a tapestry hanging in my office with a quote from the Quaker theologian, Rufus Jones. He said, "I pin my hopes to quiet processes and small circles, in which vital and transforming events take place." With our stewardship, we have the chance to transform the world around us, even when it seems like what we can offer is so very small at the time.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Defending Our Religious Liberty #240- Oct. 2, 2016

According to Archbishop William E. Lori of Baltimore, (former Bishop of Bridgeport), chairman of the USCCB's Ad Hoc Committee for Religious Liberty, comments made by Martin Castro, chairman of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, saying that religious liberty is reduced to "nothing except hypocrisy," and religion is being used as a "weapon... by those seeking to deny others equality" are shocking. It suggests that Catholic, evangelical, orthodox Jewish, Mormon, and Muslim communities are comparable to fringe segregationists from the civil rights era. These statements are reckless, said Archbishop Lori, painting those who support religious freedom with the broad brush of bigotry and reveal a profound disregard for the religious foundations of the chairman's own civil rights work. If you haven't done so already, please voice your opposition to the federal health care mandate by calling U.S. Secretary of Health and Human Services Sylvia Mathews Burwell at 202-205-5445, and your elected state representatives. Let them know that the healthcare mandate is in violation of our First Amendment right to religious freedom.

Sharing the Gospel Being part of a family means that everybody works together. Your parents work to give you a good place to live, food to eat, and clothes to wear. You probably help with jobs around the house, too, like picking up your toys, taking the garbage out, or setting the table. Each person in the family has work to do. The same is true in God's family. God has special work for us to do, especially to help others. Find happiness in your work.

Prayer for the Week Dear God, help me enjoy helping my family and others.

Mission for the Week If you know of people in your church who are very old or sick, talk to your family about ways to help them. You could rake leaves for them, help them clean their house, or bring them groceries. Help them with a smile!

Thank You to everyone who attended and participated and volunteered at the Harvest Fun Day! It was a GREAT day! The event would not have been possible without the donation of time, talent & treasure from so many of our
