...OR COME TO WEEKDAY MASS!!!

(began on June 8th) M – F at a NEW time: 8AM

In coordination with the Archdiocese of Hartford, parishes of the Diocese of Norwich may resume the public celebration of Sunday Mass, including any anticipated Mass(es) on Saturday evening, beginning the weekend of July 4 and 5. Please note: the limitation on gatherings for religious worship, as amended by Executive Order No. 7SS of Governor Lamont, remains in effect. By this order, indoor gatherings are limited to 25% of capacity of the indoor space or a maximum of 100 people. Outdoor gatherings are limited to 150 people.

We are complying with state orders by limiting attendance, social distancing, many pews are taped off and unused, masks are to be worn, hand sanitizer at entrance. The Most Reverend Michael R. Cote, Bishop of Norwich, dispensed of the Sunday Mass obligation.

Please see norwichdiocese.org for further information.

PRAY for our children to carry their Faith with them as they return to school.

LIVE THE LITURGY (Mt 18:21-35)

It is not easy to confront someone who has wronged or hurt us. But it is absolutely necessary to do so in order for reconciliation to occur. We are taught to mind our own business and keep our thoughts to ourselves. When we have been hurt or wronged and we do not acknowledge and give voice to it, those feelings of hurt remain in our hearts and can eventually turn into anger. Verbalizing our feelings can diffuse them, and communicating how we actually feel brings honesty to our relationships. This is the only way that the path of love can remain open and that integrity and mutual respect can be maintained. It is no wonder that Jesus absolutely insisted upon healthy and compassionate confrontation. People don't always realize that they are doing harm. Bringing this to light is not only good for the one who is hurt but for the one who caused the pain. The new insight and revelation may prevent the action from being repeated again.

Last week, Hurricane Laura made landfall as a Category 4 storm, with storm surges affecting the Gulf Coast. The Knights of Columbus is making a $150,000 donation to the Catholic Diocese of Lake Charles, La., to jump start relief efforts there, in addition to other relief being provided to impacted areas by Knights from across the country. This is just a small part of what communities are experiencing as fires, storms and other natural disasters collide with the pandemic and civil unrest. When disaster happens, Knights are there.

Next Weekend's 2nd Collection:

Our Catholic elementary schools need your support as they open with safety measures in place and work hard to provide our students with another great school year.

Donation envelopes and flyers are available in all churches

If you are in need of a priest, please contact Fr. Joe and/or Fr. Walter at the rectory, 860-434-1660.
