WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Q: How do we know when we receive the Holy Spirit?

A: My brothers and I discovered something as we got older. There's a little bit of dad in us. Each time we catch ourselves using one of his gestures, expressions, or comments about a meal, we say, "I'm getting more like Dad!" Many laughs and good-natured kidding have come out of it. Mom loves it, and so does Dad, although I doubt he'd admit it!

When we are confirmed, we receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit. There is no radical change in us that makes us seem suddenly different. Over a period of time we come to see that there is a little bit of the Spirit in us. We catch ourselves using the gifts, and often end up wondering where a bit of wisdom came from, or why we were so patient or we feel an intensity in our prayer. Perhaps we felt drawn to deepen our spiritual life or found courage in witnessing to our faith.

That's when we know we have received the Holy Spirit. We take on his image. Yes, we grow in age, grace and wisdom, but we also grow in our awareness and understanding of the working of God in our life. We become more godlike, realizing we're getting more and more like God. Our thoughts, words and actions carry that quality and others too, see it in us. You might call it holiness. But be confident! There's a little bit of him in all of us.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Luke 3:10-18

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

In Christianity, we hear often about the "Good News." We might often associate it with Jesus' compassion to the poor, his healings and miracles, and the salvation he won for us. In today's Gospel, we read of John the Baptist. "Exhorting them in many other ways, he preached good news to the people." Yet as we examine the rest of the reading, we see examples of John's preaching. If you have two cloaks, give one away. Don't cheat others out of their money, extort, or lie. And, of course, the warning that the Messiah is on the move and "his winnowing fan is in his hand to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his barn, but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire." Merry Christmas?

Not only do John's listeners enjoy his message, but they seem to think he might be the awaited Messiah! To understand today's Gospel, it's important to understand the Jewish people. For most of their history, God's chosen people had been under someone else's heel. They were slaves in Egypt. Their kingdoms were ravaged first by the Assyrians, then the Babylonians. Now they were under the yoke of the Roman Empire. Familiar with being strangers in a strange land, welcoming the stranger, caring for the vulnerable, and enacting justice was incredibly important to them as a people. While John's words may seem odd or strong to our modern ears, this call to justice was welcome, even if it was directed at the hearer.

The truth is, no one is exempt from John's call to repentance. We all have further to go in the Christian life. We can all grow in virtue and love our neighbors more generously. The Church gives us the Advent season to examine our own hearts. Did any of John's warnings resonate with you? That could be a great thing to bring to Jesus this week!

Dec. 25 9am Christmas Morning Mass

Don't take flight at signs of adversity

In 1776, when a new California mission was named in honor of John Capistran by Junipero Serra, perhaps it was to honor a vital, hardworking, and optimistic fellow Franciscan of the 15th century when church and world were torn by everything from plague to heresy. Amazingly energetic, John was a force for renewal and fidelity in a fiercely divided church. And then there are the swallows. They return to the abandoned mission every spring and leave around this time. They, too, were optimists when they began to settle at the mission after a local innkeeper destroyed their unseemly muddy nests. Ask yourself: Can I hold on to the joy and optimism of a dauntless swallow or a dedicated reformer, even when things do not unfold as I'd like? (takefiveforfaith.com)

THE THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Confessions during Advent

Advent Reconciliation Service

Sunday, Dec. 16 at 2:00pm

This is our Holy Trinity Cluster's Reconciliation Service for Advent and will be held here at Christ the King Church.

Tuesday, Dec. 18: 1:00pm & 6:00pm

Thursday, Dec. 20: 1:00pm and 6:00pm

CHRISTMAS and CONFIRMATION

My youngest child is going through Confirmation preparation this year. It is always quite a challenge to get through to a teenager about the importance of the gifts and fruits of the Spirit. You can't see and touch these things, but they are more valuable than most tangible gifts we can receive.

Isaiah 11 features the list of the traditional gifts of the Spirit that we speak about in the context of the sacrament:

Wisdom,

Understanding,

Counsel,

Strength,

Knowledge,

Piety (Holiness), and

Fear (Awe) of the Lord.

These gifts are freely given to us to assist us in our daily walk with God. Discipleship and stewardship are hard enough in this world without the help from God's Spirit.

During this Advent season, we think quite a bit about gifts and gift giving. What is the perfect gift for that special someone?

What can you give that will have an impact and the person will remember for years to come? Over two thousand years ago, a gift was given to us in a manger that really made a lasting impact. That gift remains with us in a profound way through the sacraments. While we are busy trying to get gifts for others, let us be mindful of the gifts we have already received by the best gift giver the world has ever seen.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

ADVENT GIVING TREE

Our Advent Giving Tree Project is in its 29th year! Our donations will be going to the following four organizations:

St Mark's Neighbor's Aide in St Paul, VA

St. Vincent de Paul Place in Norwich, CT

The New Life Prison Ministry

Madonna Place

* And also, as we do each year, gifts for our seminarians.

Thank you all for making our Giving Tree Project a success!

Later this month we will report back to you on what was collected and delivered to each of the four organizations.

On behalf of St Mark's Neighbor's Aide in St Paul, VA, St. Vincent de Paul Place in Norwich, the New Life Prison Ministry & Madonna Place, thank you for making a Very Merry Christmas for those less fortunate.

If you have any questions or would like to help out next year please call Louise Young @ 860-434-1669

This is our Parish's Advent preparation for the true celebration of Christmas and it has been an open opportunity for all of us to help share our blessings. Thank you!

Please pray for all the Confirmandi of family of God. at Christ the King Parish. Alleluia!

Come to daily Mass: M-F mornings @ 7:30am!

There is something about the intimacy of daily Mass that creates a different experience than Sunday Mass. It is the same Mass, but you hear things in a different ways, you witness things in a different way. The quiet and peace of the daily Mass experience is a great opportunity to discover the genius of Catholicism. (Matthew Kelly)
