GOSPEL MEDITATION -

(Mt 26:14--27:66)

"Peter said to him in reply, 'Though all may have their faith in you shaken, mine will never be.'" Peter thought pretty highly of his faith. On the eve of Christ's death he professed, in essence, that he was more committed to Jesus than anyone else. And yet, we know how the story turns out: when put to the test in the moment that mattered, Peter "began to curse and to swear, 'I do not know the man.'"

On this Palm Sunday, we hear many stories of betrayal. The crowds, who once hailed Jesus with "hosannas," will soon be chanting, "Let him be crucified!" Judas, who was counted among the closest companions of the Lord, turns him over to the chief priests for thirty pieces of silver. And Peter falls short in the moment of truth, and then "went out and began to weep bitterly." Here in the hours before Christ faces crucifixion, he is surrounded by false friends. Just when he most needs the support, he is abandoned. No wonder he feels the suffering even of being forgotten by his Father while he hangs on the cross, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" What trials Jesus endured, not only physically but emotionally as well.

It's easy to glaze over this as a story from the past that does not involve us. But in truth, Jesus suffered all of this for each one of us. He would have preferred things to go otherwise, but submitted to his Father's will because he knew "it must come to pass in this way." Jesus' passion and death took place in order to bring YOU, and ME, all of us, salvation. Today, may we not be counted among his many betrayers, but may we be truly grateful for the gift of the cross, for Jesus' suffering and dying out of love for us, and show it through a life of sincere faith. -LPI 4/09/2017

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Q: What are the servant songs of Isaiah? How do they relate to Jesus' life and ministry?

A: The four servant songs, Isaiah 42:1-4, 49:1-6, 50:4-9, and 52:13--53:12, are strategically placed in Second Isaiah to offer hope and consolation to a suffering Israel during its Babylonian Exile. This is the context in which Second Isaiah composes his powerfully poetic book of hope and consolation. A significant part of that message is the portrait of God's servant, who is called to be a source of hope and encouragement for the people. Each of the four poems emphasizes God's choice and election of the servant. The last poem stresses the suffering and rejection of God's servant, along with his eventual death. Isaiah is certain that God will use the servant's innocent suffering as a way to redeem and remove the guilt and sin of others. Thus the servant becomes a source of salvation for himself and for others. Who is this servant? Many suggest that Isaiah was referring to Israel herself, as she underwent exilic suffering that would ultimately prove to be redemptive. Jesus' followers understood Jesus' ministry in terms of Isaiah's suffering servant whose innocent suffering and death became the means of salvation for all.

Diocese of Norwich Office of the Bishop
MOST REVEREND
MICHAEL R. COTE, D.D.

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ:

During Holy Week, our Lenten journey concludes with Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem. At the end of this sacred time in the Liturgical year, we celebrate the Easter Triduum, the Last Supper, and the Lord's Passion, Death, and Resurrection. In these events, the Church so beautifully reveals for us the fullness of God's merciful love and unfolds the riches of the Paschal Mystery. On the first day of the Easter Triduum, Holy Thursday, we celebrate the Lord's institution of the Sacraments of the Eucharist and the Priesthood. By these Sacraments Jesus' priestly ministry continues in time giving His Life, His merciful love, and His Presence to all who believe and are born again by water and the Spirit through Baptism.

In the Chrism Mass of Holy Week, the Church blesses the oils and consecrates the Chrism, oils that are used in the celebration of Baptism, Confirmation, Ordination to the Priesthood, and the Sacrament of the Sick. At this celebration, the Church prays for her priests that they may be faithful ministers of Christ the High Priest.

In our diocesan family on Easter Sunday, for the past thirty-four (34) years, the Diocese of Norwich has appealed to the faithful to remember in prayer the priests who serve them in the person of Jesus Christ and to express our love and care for our retired and infirmed priests. We have special concern for their needs and we want to help them. I ask you to show your love for these very special men, next Sunday, by offering a generous gift to support them and their healthcare and retirement needs. Through your gift, you help to provide security and support to these devoted priests who have served our Diocese so well for so many years and you aid those with catastrophic illnesses.

Annually, the Easter Collection is taken up for sick and retired priests of our Diocese. In the fiscal year that ended June 30, 2016, the Easter Collection amounted to $169,254.00. The Diocese spent $494,866.00, for sick and retired priests. These monies were spent for medical insurance for sick and retired priests, medical costs not covered by insurance, such as special housing needs, the cost of necessary extended stays in nursing homes after surgery, convalescent home care, counseling, residential care, and monthly compensation for priests on sick leave.

Through your Easter gift, you help to provide security and support to these devoted priests who have served our Diocese so well for so many years. Please show your love and care for our retired and infirm priests by offering a generous gift to them in the special second collection at all Masses on Easter weekend.

May God bless your generosity to this appeal and may you have a blessed observance of Holy Week and a holy and happy Easter.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Bishop of Norwich

HOLY WEEK REFLECTION

Hopefully, our Lent has been fruitful and we have spent time with devotions like the Stations of the Cross. Maybe we have taken time to read Scripture slowly and deliberately, taking time to let each aspect sink into our mind and spirit. If Lent has been instead a time of too much business and not much prayer and reflection, the good news is that it is never too late.

During this Holy Week, take some time to enter into the story of the Passion. Good stewardship calls us to not only give of that which can be seen, but also that which cannot be seen. Surrender your mind, body, and spirit to Jesus. He carries his cross before you and beckons you to follow Him.
