WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Q: Lent is coming up. Can you recommend some good books for Lenten spiritual reading?

A: Lent is a wonderful time to grow in our relationship with God. Examining where you're at can help you to take the next step. Perhaps it's been awhile since you prayed consistently. It could be helpful to pray with guided, "bite-sized" Lenten reflections (ie: The Little Black Book). Many organizations offer emailed reflections during Lent (ie: Dynamic Catholic's "Best Lent Ever"), and numerous books have been published with short reflections for each day of the season. Modern spiritual writers can offer perspectives that are easy to read and relevant to our daily experiences.

Perhaps daily prayer is already a part of your life, and this Lent you'd like to go deeper. Lent can be a great time to pray through a spiritual classic, like Abandonment to Divine Providence, The Imitation of Christ, St. Augustine's Confessions, or books on the spiritual life from saints such as St. Josemaria Escriva, St. Francis de Sales, or St. Teresa of Avila. You may also want to pick up spiritual or Scriptural commentaries on the Passion, the Way of the Cross, or the seven last words of Christ. No matter where you are in your walk, it also doesn't hurt to go back to the basics. Pick one of the Gospels to meditatively read throughout Lent, timing it to reach the end as Holy Week arrives.

LENT BEGINS THIS WEEK

Ash Wednesday (March 6):

- 7:30am: Mass with Ashes
- 12:00pm: Distribution of Ashes
- 6:30pm: Mass with Ashes

Daylight Savings Time Begins on March 10

Please note, on Saturday, March 16, our Vigil Mass time will return to 5:00PM.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - (Luke 6:39-45)

Emails. Carpools. Shopping lists. Home repairs. It can seem like we move so quickly from one thing to the next. Our news comes in sound bites and headlines. How often do we take time for silence, for prayer, for reflection, for wisdom? Jesus warns us of stumbling through life without an adequate sense of where we're going. "Can a blind person guide a blind person? Will not both fall into a pit?" This Sunday's Gospel isn't about fumbling along but offers a self-check on our own motivations.

"Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own?" Without adequate self-reflection, it's easy to become blind to our own faults. We go through life's motions as our bad habits linger or even increase. We may become increasingly impatient, we may avoid important tasks, we may neglect the emotional needs of our spouse. Perhaps, in the process, we find fault with those around us. In the words of Jesus, "remove the wooden beam from your own eye first."

So how do we know? How can we notice the hidden faults in our lives? "A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit. For every tree is known by its own fruit. A good person out of the store of goodness in his heart produces good, but an evil person out of store of evil produces evil." Do you notice certain relationships that have become strained, or situations where you know you don't act your best? Perhaps this is an area where you are acting out of sin, rather than virtue. The truth is, all of us are a mixture of light and dark, vice and virtue. We can't pretend we're perfect! But we also need to take time to pause and prayerfully examine the fruit we're bearing. LPI 3/3/19
